PRESS RELEASE

16th November 2006

GEMMA ADAMS ENQUIRY – SIGHTING AT WEST END ROAD, IPSWICH

Suffolk Police are renewing their appeal for information following the disappearance of 25-year-old prostitute Gemma Adams.

Following extensive media publicity in relation to Gemma's disappearance police have received a number of calls and information from members of the public including a possible sighting of Gemma in West End Road.

Extra high visibilities patrols by officers were carried out last night in and around the area Gemma was known to frequent in Ipswich. Officers spoke to around 100 people. The information received will now be followed up.

Gemma was last seen by her partner at around 10pm on Tuesday evening in Bramford Road, Ipswich.

Gemma Adams was reported missing to police by her partner at around 2.55am yesterday (Wednesday 15th November) after she failed to return home from working as a prostitute in Ipswich.

Through their enquiries police have spoken to one person who has stated they saw Gemma in West End Road (near to the BMW garage) at around 1.15am on Wednesday 15th.

Police would like to renew their appeals for information from anyone who may have seen Gemma in Ipswich on the night she went missing or in and around West End Road in the early hours of Wednesday 15th.

Calls should be made to Suffolk Police on 01473 613538 or Crime stoppers on 0800 555 111.
