MURDERS UPDATE – MAN CHARGED

Speaking tonight (Thursday, 21 December, 2006), Detective Chief Superintendent Stewart Gull said:

“You will be aware that on Monday (18 December), as part of our investigation into the murders of five women in the Ipswich area, we arrested a suspect at his home address in Trimley.

The next day, Tuesday (19 December), a second suspect was arrested in Ipswich.

There have been significant on-going enquiries and interviews during the period that these men have been in custody.

As a result of these enquiries, the 37-year-old man from Trimley was this evening released on police bail, pending further enquiries. Police will not name this man, at this stage.

The second man, Steven Wright from Ipswich, has been charged with the murder of all five women - Gemma Adams, Tania Nicol, Anneli Alderton, Paula Clennell and Annette Nicholls.”
