

SUFFOLK CONSTABULARY

PRESS RELEASE

Release date: 8/12/2006

BODY FOUND – COPDOCK MILL

Police can confirm that the body of a woman has been found in water near to Copdock Mill, outside Ipswich.

The body, which is naked, was found at about 11:30am.

It was found by a police diving team near the public weighbridge at Copdock Mill.

The team was conducting searches following the discovery of the body of 25-year-old Gemma Adams on December 2.

A cordon has been set up at the scene and arrangements are being made to recover the body.

Following this, a post mortem examination will be conducted by a Home Office pathologist at a time to be arranged.

Details of the deceased will not be released until formal identification has taken place and next of kin have been informed.

ENDS

Note to Editors

Det Chief Insp John Quinton will be available for interview at the scene at Copdock Mill, which is located off the old A12, at 3pm this afternoon (Friday, December 8).

Issued by: Suffolk Police Press Office,
Direct Telephone No's: Ipswich (01473) 782722/3
Switchboard – (01473) 613500; Fax (01473) 611269

