Broadcasting & Editorial

The BBC ensures high ethical and editorial standards in all its output by requiring production staff to work within the BBC Editorial Guidelines which reflect the relevant sections of the Ofcom Broadcasting Code. Programme makers should also take account of relevant guidance that is issued on matters of editorial policy.

A list of editorial compliance contacts is available on the Editorial Policy gateway site.

The BBC needs to demonstrate that it has robust compliance processes. A compliance form is required for all recorded programmes on BBC One, BBC Two, BBC Three, BBC Four, CBeebies, CBBC, BBC News, BBC HD, BBC Parliament and streamed programming on BBCi. This form can be found on the BBC's Compliance Manager, which was updated in April 2008 as part of the BBC's Safeguarding Trust initiative.

Compliance processes for Audio and Music are managed within Proteus, an on-line one stop shop for radio programme information, which supports radio network and BBC Production departments.

The Nations & Regions also have compliance sites that provide links to relevant editorial compliance forms:

BBC Scotland
BBC Northern Ireland
English Regions
BBC Wales
