Dear Mr & Mrs Bales,

I'm writing to you at what I know is a desperate time for you and your family.

I am a reporter with ITN, and I've been covering the tragedy of what happened in Switzerland all week.

The sense of shock and sadness at what happened to your son and his classmates has been felt across the world.

If, at any stage, you feel you would like to give a TV interview about your loss, and the terrible events which caused it, please do contact me.

With my sincere condolences
