Sir Paul Stephenson
Commissioner, Metropolitan Police
New Scotland Yard

9 July 2009

Dear Commissioner

I understand the Metropolitan Police has looked into allegations the News of the World has been tapping the mobile phones of a number of people.

Some names have already been noted in the media, and some figures related to the number of people tapped have also been mentioned.

I'd like to know if my name has been noticed in the course of your enquiries and if my mobile phone has been compromised?

Also, could you confirm that should inquiries show my phone was tapped, that I would be notified by the Metropolitan Police?

I understand that this is a developing situation, with much media speculation, but I would appreciate any information you hold if my phone account has been misused.

Yours faithfully

Chris Bryant
Member of Parliament for the Rhondda
