Jean Lord Woolf,

I apologise for being so slow to reply to your letter of the 29 October.

I am very pleased that Tim Toulmin was able to be of help in the matter of the sentencing guidelines. Since then Tim and I have had a good conversation with Igor Judge which, I hope, he found as useful as did we. There are clearly things that can be done – both short and longer term – which should lead to a better understanding by editors of the Judiciary. I am happy to do whatever I can to help this process along.

*Yours sincerely,
Christopher Meyer*
