

PRESS COMPLAINTS COMMISSION

From the Director

Ed Miliband Esq
Leader
Labour Party
House of Commons
London
SW1 0AA

29th September 2010

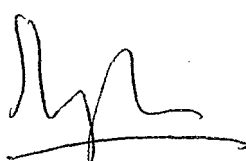

Dear Mr Miliband,

I am writing to congratulate you – as, I am sure, have many others – on becoming Leader of the Labour Party.

As Director of the Press Complaints Commission, I also would like to make you aware of our services, in case you (on a personal or professional basis) have concerns about the press. As you may know, we can promptly consider complaints – framed within a Code of Practice – about inaccuracy or intrusion in articles. We also operate a twenty-four hour service to deal with pre-publication issues, or worries about the behaviour of journalists (both broadcast and print).

I would be very happy to meet with you – or your press representatives – to discuss the work of the PCC, and how it may be beneficial to you, your constituents and your members. I realise that you will be very busy at the moment, but please do let me know if we can be of help. My mobile number is 07980 264359, and I can be contacted any time in the event of urgent need.

With kind regards.

Yours etc
