Online journalism seminar

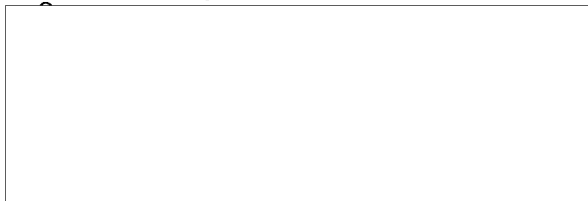

Now that the industry has agreed the extension of the PCC's remit to audio-visual editorial material on newspaper and magazine websites, it will obviously be important for all online journalists to be familiar with the Commission's interpretation and application of the Code, particularly in relation to privacy.

I am therefore hosting one of our training seminars on the 1st March in the Bridewell 2 room of the Crowne Plaza Hotel (next to Blackfriars station on New Bridge Street) from 6.30 pm. Drinks will be provided.

I have already written to James Montgomery about this, and it would be excellent if there was a good turnout from the Financial Times.

With kind regards.
