Thank you for taking the trouble to write, and for reading our submission to the Select Committee.

I think that the PCC has changed a lot in recent years – for all sorts of reasons including of course your own ideas. If you would ever like to come into the Commission to see how things work behind the scenes then please do let me know. It would be a pleasure to show you round and introduce you to some of my colleagues who deal with the real problems and dilemmas that arise on a daily basis.

With kind regards.
