Dear Martin,

Thank you for sending me a copy of your press release dated June 27 2008.

What I was hoping for, given that last week you placed reliance on the fact that we had 'ignored' a call from you, was a copy of your letter or e-mail to us drawing attention to it. It seems that no such correspondence exists. If we didn't know about your call, we couldn't have ignored it – and I'm afraid that we do not spend our time here scouring the internet in case we have missed an announcement from the Media Standards Trust.

With kind regards.
