

EDITORIAL GRADUATE TRAINING SCHEME (PROVIDED BY PRESS ASSOCIATION AT HOWDEN) OVERVIEW 2009
	Syllabus	Tutor
WEEK 1
	Evening welcome	Tony Johnston/ Mike Watson
Mon 8	Introduction to course	Tony Johnston/ Mike Watson
	The role of the multimedia journalist in today's newsroom
	What makes news; sources of stories; the news agenda today
	The role of video and the skills required
Tues 9	Getting the basics right: use of words, story construction, intros, identifying key points of a story, the do's and don'ts of dropped intros, telling it simply,	Tony Johnston writing to style, keeping in accurate, keeping it balanced, writing as tightly as possible.
Wed 10	The newspaper industry – an overview, history, setting where we are in	Peter Sands context, content that sells, the art of editing, grammar, punctuation, use of language – clichés, jargon, unnecessary adjectives, meaningless modifiers building pictures in the readers' minds; common mistakes; further exercises in tight writing and editing.
Thurs 11	Thinking headlines – for reporters and production journalists. What makes a	Peter Sands good headline, and a bad one; headline styles – the label, the narrative, the quote, the one-word, the pun; relationship between main decks, strap lines and sub decks; attribution; headlines on the web; the reporter and production journalist working together Pictures on a page: captions; visual journalism
Friday 12	Writing and editing – a complete page written and edited accurately.	Peter Sands

WEEK 2
Mon 15	Writing for the Web. Julian Sambles visit.	Andy Drinkwater/ Julian Sambles
Tues 16	Internet for journalists	Andy Drinkwater
Wed 17	The basics cont'd: rewrites, using quotes to animate and tell a story, writing and editing pitfalls, practical exercises in good writing and editing, examples of well-edited stories and poorly edited text.	Tony Johnston
Thurs 18	An introduction to video: tapes, batteries, camera set-up	Christina Fox
Friday 19	Focus, picture composition, exposure, shooting for the edit Sequences, sound and connections to the camera, Pieces to camera and interviews	Christina Fox
WEEK 3
Mon 22	Advanced interviewing skills - understanding body language Face to face and telephone interviewing, death knocks press onferences and putting interviewees at their ease	Tony Johnston
Tues 23	Advanced interviewing skills cont	Tony Johnston/ Mike Watson
Weds 24	Developing camera techniques; interviewing on camera	Christina Fox
Thurs 25	Story boarding Shooting a story in video -- framing shots, voiceovers, shot ratios; understanding audio	Christina Fox
Friday 26	Overview to Government and FOI	Paul Francis
WEEK 4
Mon 29	An introduction to editing in video	Phil Muse
Tue 30	Basic media law - covering the courts, structures, personnel, civil and makes news, sources of news, how to find and keep contacts, story writing criminal courts, reporting restrictions, preliminary hearings, indictable offences, children and young people, ASBOS, court, protecting sources, protection for court reporters	Pat Hagan
Wed Oct 1	Presenting on camera, voice coaching and writing for pictures	Helen Philpot
Thurs 2	Presenting on camera, voice coaching and writing for pictures (Cont)	Helen Philpot
Fri 3	An introduction to editing in video cont'd	Phil Muse

